RESEARCH FOR CHANGE: Gender, Forced Migration and Vulnerabilities

RAISD Observatory for Forced Displacement and the UCM - Complutense University of Madrid - proudly announce the Workshop for Young Researchers, taking place from April 27th to 28th, 2021, under the theme “Research for Change: Gender, Forced Migration and Vulnerabilities”.

Believing in young researchers' competence, this event has the objective to enable them to show their work and improve their careers in a creative way with a possibility to win an award for the best rated work. The focus is on practical proposals that help to understand and transform this reality, considering gender inequalities and specificities. Registrations will be free of charge and presentations will be oral. Projects can be presented on video, poster, interactive board formats or multi platform in fifteen-minute sessions. Abstracts will be published at RfC website.

Abstracts 300 to 500 words + 100 words bio + indication of presentation format. They should be sent to comunicacionspain@raisd-h2020.eu.
